

ACTIVITIES WINTER 2009/2010

WORLD OF THE GLACIERS

Trip to Mittelallalin with visit of the revolving restaurant & the ice pavilion

Visitors may reach the Mittelallalin aboard the highest underground railway in the world, the 'Metro Alpin'. Here, at 3,500 metres above sea level, an unfamiliar new world awaits them: magnificent snow and glacier landscapes reach up, seemingly without end, towards the ice-blue skies.

If our guest decides to visit the highest revolving restaurant in the world, he can enjoy a succession of fantastic mountain landscapes that will unfold in front of him. The full circle takes one hour. It begins with the imposing ice mass of the Allalinhorn just a stone's throw away, across to the Mischabel Range, which includes the highest mountains on Swiss territory. The view then opens out to the Wallis Valley and the Bernese Alps. On a particularly clear day, visitors will even be able to see the plains of the River Po in Italy.

Finally, just a few steps away; the largest ice pavilion in the world awaits you. Who wants to know what a glacier looks like from the inside? Who wants to see a crevasse from its depth's? All will be revealed in the Ice Pavilion.
